DETAILED ACTION

The Examiner acknowledges the amendment filed on May 14, 2008 and presents the new election requirement in response to the newly added claims.

Applicant also stated that the newly presented claims were found to possess unity of invention during the international examination process so they could not be restricted. However, the present application was not filed under 35 U.S.C 371, therefore the special international provisions regarding Unity of Invention do not apply in this case.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species.

Species 1, drawn to the embodiment described as a first broad form of the present invention in paragraph 00013 of the specification and corresponding to claim 135.

Species 2, drawn to the embodiment described as a second broad form of the present invention in paragraph 00014 of the specification and corresponding to claim 136.

Species 3, drawn to the embodiment described as a third broad form of the present invention in paragraphs 00015-00019 of the specification and corresponding to claims 137-140.

Art Unit: 3736

Species 4, drawn to the embodiment described as a fourth broad form of the present invention in paragraphs 00020-00024 of the specification and corresponding to claims 142-146.

Species 5, drawn to the embodiment described as a fifth broad form of the present invention in paragraphs 00025-00050 of the specification and corresponding to claims 71-93.

Species 6, drawn to the embodiment described as a sixth broad form of the present invention in paragraphs 00051 of the specification and corresponding to claims 96-97.

Species 7, drawn to the embodiment described as a seventh broad form of the present invention in paragraph 00052 of the specification and corresponding to claim 98.

Species 8, drawn to the embodiment described as an eighth broad form of the present invention in paragraphs 00053-63 of the specification and corresponding to claims 99-107 and 117.

Species 9, drawn to the embodiment described as an eleventh broad form of the present invention in paragraphs 00066-00079 of the specification and corresponding to claims 108 and 109-119.

Species 10, drawn to the embodiment described as a twelfth broad form of the present invention in paragraph 00080-00089 of the specification and corresponding to claims 120-128.

Species 11, drawn to the embodiment described as a fourteenth broad form of the present invention in paragraphs 00091 of the specification and corresponding to claims 129-130.

Species 12, drawn to the embodiment described as a nineteenth broad form of the present invention in paragraphs 00097-000100 of the specification and corresponding to claims 131-134 and 141.

The species are independent or distinct because claims to the different species recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species due to their mutually exclusive characteristics. The species require a different field of search (e.g., searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

The election of the species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the election of species requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the species unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other species.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sharick Naqi whose telephone number is (571)272-3041. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30 am - 5:00 pm.
